Subject: PA 407 Rule 261 (d) Memo

To: LARA/Bureau of Construction Codes

From: Professional Code Services LLC (PCS LLC)

Proposed action: Rule 261 (d) Clarifying language (mods in red)

PCS LLC Proposed Language:

(d) An individual is only authorized to personally ~~registrant shall only~~ conduct inspections or plan reviews in the category for which the individual has been granted registration ~~is issued~~.

Justification: The intent of this proposed language change is to add clarity to the rule indicating that only an individual can personally function as an inspector or plan reviewer in the category of their registration(s). This change would also eliminate any ambiguity as it pertains to the delegation of inspections or plan reviews, to another unregistered individual, "under supervision" of the registrant.
